Change of Date of Sale.

The date of the public sale of W. H. Clay has been changed to February 23. On that date it will be offered in two tracts, that being the desire of several who wished to bid.

Makes Us Blush.

THE Bourbon News is greatly improved in its all-around print 8-column folio size. Mr. Robert Porter, the new local editor, is doing excellent work.—Cynthia D. Mearns.

Mayville Tobacco Fair.

The Tobacco Fair of Kentucky and Ohio will be held in Mayville February 22, (Washington's Birthday). A splendid program has been arranged, and all who attend will be highly entertained. There will be sixteen premiums on tobacco, four on corn, six on wheat, and four on potatoes, the whole aggregating $200 in gold. There will be no entrance fee nor charge for anything.

Valentine Social.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Church will hold a Valentine Social this evening from 7:30 to 10:30 in the lecture room of the church. A fine literary and musical program will be rendered, and refreshments will be served. A souvenir will be presented to each member of the audience. A cordial invitation extended to all. Admission 15 cents.

Memorial Services.

At 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon the W. C. T. U. will observe the third anniversary of the death of Francis E. Willard by holding a memorial meeting at the Christian Church. An excellent program is being arranged by members of the local union, in which the pastors of the various churches and representatives from the Young Women's Union will take part. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend.

Gone to New York.

MR. L. FRANK left Tuesday on his semi-annual trip to New York to purchase a stock of goods for the Spring trade. Mr. Frank's well-known buying qualities and his excellent taste will insure the ladies of Paris and the county some rare bargains in the very latest in the dry goods and fancy goods lines. His trip will extend two weeks, and the entire Eastern market will be covered.

Found $14,000 Under The Carpet.

It was reported in the afternoon newspaper Wednesday that $14,000 was found under the carpet of the house belonging to the late Thomas Moore, of Banklick Station, Kenton county. Thomas Moore, aged 82, and his wife, aged 68, died of consumption at their home last Friday. On the following day their son, William Moore, died of the same disease.

Meeting of Hard-core Dealers' Association.

THE Kentucky Retail Hardware and Store Dealers' Association, which met in Lexington the early part of this week adjourned Wednesday to meet again in February of next year at Louisville. In order to obtain new members among the smaller cities and towns of the State Chairmen for each Congressional District were appointed to do soliciting work. Capt. Winn of the firm of Winn & Lowry, of this city, was elected chairman for the Tenth and Eleventh Districts.

Dangerous Use of Paris Green.

THE liberal use of Paris green on tobacco is a dangerous practice. There have been numerous instances brought to our notice of cattle being poisoned by eating feed which had come in contact with tobacco covered with Paris green. Mrs. Amelia Shropshire has several horses sick from eating hay which had been packed in a barn that had previously contained tobacco on which the poison had been used. Mr. Albert Thompson, of the Clantonville precinct, lost a valuable steer from Paris green poisoning, caused by eating a hand of tobacco on which Paris green had been placed. There should be a state law against the indiscriminate buying and selling of this deadly poison.

Jeffries-Ruhlin Fight Postponed.

At Cincinnati yesterday Judge Holister granted a permanent injunction against the Jeffries-Ruhlin prize fight scheduled to take place to-night. The promoters of the fight will postpone the event until after they can carry the case up to the Circuit and Supreme Courts.

She Wanted Her Brains.

A very laughable incident happened at the Fordham Hotel the other day, which has not yet ceased blushing. The telephone bell rang, and Dan responded:

"Hello," said he; "what is it?"
"Have you any brains?" said the voice on the other end of the line.
"Well, I should hope so," said Dan.
"Why do you ask?"
"Because you can send me up some if you have any to spare," said the other end.
"Well," gasped Dan, "that's another question. You know it takes considerable brains to run a hotel, and—"

"Hotel!" shouted the other end of the wire. "Who said anything about a hotel. Ain't this Margolen's butcher shop I'm talking to?"
Dan started to say "Hello," but owing to his excitement got the word reversed, and the telephone operator cut him off. But for the next few days it won't be healthy to ask him if he has any brains.

Attacked By a Negro.

WHILE Mr. Jeff Hughes and sister, of Avon, this county, were driving to church last Sunday, they were attacked by a burly negro with a club. Mr. Hughes did not have a weapon of any kind, but managed to keep off his assailant, and finally escaped by whipping up the horse. No reason is known for the assault. The officers are working on the case, and it is hoped they will succeed in arresting the ruffian.

There was never such a chance for bargains in millinery of every description as Mrs. Corne Watson offers at her auction sale, commencing to-morrow morning. Everything will be sold for what it will bring.

Organizing a Red Man's Lodge.

MR. JOHN M. CLIFFORD, Deputy State Organizer for Kentucky of the Improved Order of Red Men, is in the city endeavoring to organize a lodge here, and is meeting with considerable success. The Improved Order of Red Men is a splendid fraternal organization. There is a death benefit attached, a weekly sick benefit and in most lodges the services of a good physician is furnished free. The initiation fee and the monthly dues are small, and every one who possibly can should attach their name to the petition. Mr. Clifford will be in Paris for several days, and will take pleasure in explaining the workings and benefits of the order.

JOHN DOTY has a number of pictures for sale of the negro who was hung Sunday night—taken while swinging.

Spruceing Up.

LANDLORD DANIEL CONNORS is giving the Hotel Fordham a general overhauling. The office is being painted, new carpets are being laid, new furniture put in, and in a few days the Fordham will be as neat and pretty a hotel as there is in the State. We have heard it hinted that Father Dan is thinking of taking out himself a better half, which accounts for the spruceing up. If such is the case The News extends congratulations in advance.

War on Valentines.

The Lexington Herald, of yesterday had the following:
"An anti-comic valentine movement has been started by local kindergarten teachers. For some weeks past, in view of the coming of St. Valentine's Day, the teachers have been instructing the little tots in their care that comic valentines are inappropriate and vulgar. As a result, the demand for this class of valentines has somewhat diminished. As a proof of this, one stationer said to a Herald reporter that the valentine sale has not been nearly so good this year as last."
This is an excellent move which we hope the people of Paris will also adopt. The greater majority of the cheap comic valentines now manufactured are too vulgar to be placed in the hands of an adult, much less a child, whose mind is in a plastic state, easily influenced for good or bad. The gaudy colors in which they are printed, coupled with the extreme cheapness, make them especially attractive to the children, and the first impression of one of the vulgar and oftentimes nasty things is liable to make an impression on the child's mind for of its life. There should be a concerted movement against the cheap comic valentine.

An Interesting Game.

Another interesting contest took place Wednesday night at the Bourbon Bowling Alleys between the Professionals and Bourbons, the latter winning two of the three games. No large individual or team scores were made, yet the play was spirited, as the following score will show:

| Totals        | 643 | 735 | 732 | 2110  | 703     |

Manager Stivers is trying to arrange a match game with Lexington experts, believing that a team can be selected among the Paris players that can defeat any team in Central Kentucky.

Our Great CLEARANCE Sale!

Just a few words of explanation, so that the people may understand the full meaning of this great semi-annual trade event.

Twice in each year—

February AND August,

We hold these clearance sales, for the double purpose of closing out the season's stock, as under no circumstances do we carry our goods from one season to another, and sharing with the people the profits of the season's business. We have made our profits already. We have in former Sales surprised the community by the
